

ART ● CRAFT ● TRAVEL ● INTERIOR DESIGN

AMERICAN Style

JUNE 2009

TOP 25 CITIES FOR ART

CITY ARTS
Chattanooga

PORTFOLIO
Printmaker
Beth Weintraub

Gardens & Art

When Artists
Meet Landscape,
Anything
Can Happen

For more shows and art events listings, see Datebook Listings at www.americanstyle.com.

CHICAGO, ILL.: Hyde Park's 62nd annual 57th Street Art Fair returns June 6-7 to showcase more than 250 artists working in glass, jewelry, leather, wood and more, including stand-out painter Susan Hodgin, whose oil painting "Road" is shown. Another can't-miss event: free Art Buying Boot Camp, taught by experts who give tips about buying, negotiating, decorating and more. (773-493-3247)

LAGUNA BEACH, CALIF.: Experience art firsthand at Art-A-Fair June 26-Aug. 30. The show boasts more than 125 international juried artists who produce paintings, sculpture, jewelry, pottery, glass, wood and photography like "Flamboyant" by Vicki Burkhard. Don't miss out on daily demonstrations, workshops or the live entertainment. (949-494-4514)

BALTIMORE, MD.: Furniture heaven lands in Baltimore May 2-3 for the inaugural Fine Furnishings & Fine Craft Show at the France-Merrick Performing Arts Center. The show includes approximately 50 exhibitors who produce handmade furniture, accessories, fine art and craft. Don't miss stellar exhibitors like Andrew Pitts, whose "Pedestal Cabinet" is shown. (401-816-0963)

RHINEBECK, N.Y.: You'll find high-quality art and craft as well as work by emerging masters at Crafts at Rhinebeck June 20-21 at the Dutchess County Fairgrounds. The indoor/outdoor show features everything from affordable art to one-of-a-kind sculpture, from ceramics to jewelry, and includes clocks by RoseAnna Stokes. (845-876-4001)